

Despite an upbringing that allowed Moses to believe he could do _____,

God took Moses to the desert to show him he is _____;

He then later revealed to Moses that He can do _____ with _____.

Exodus 2:3-6

When she could hide him no longer, she took for him a basket made of bulrushes and daubed it with bitumen and pitch. She put the child in it and placed it among the reeds by the river bank. And his sister stood at a distance to know what would be done to him. Now the daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her young women walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her servant woman, and she took it. When she opened it, she saw the child, and behold, the baby was crying. She took pity on him and said, "This is one of the Hebrews' children."

True _____ is a full understanding of your need for a _____.

Have you experienced true brokenness or have you only been embarrassed?

Exodus 2:23-25

During those many days the king of Egypt died, and the people of Israel groaned because of their slavery and cried out for help. Their cry for rescue from slavery came up to God. And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. God saw the people of Israel—and God knew.

Moses needed the desert—not to get what he desired,
but to learn what God desired of him.
