

Parent Overview

Sin convinces us that we can be our own king or that we need to look to an earthly king or government to save us. In this life, we have to live under earthly rules, but we know God sits on the ultimate throne. We can have differing opinions but as Christians it's God's plan that we should seek and fight for.

Key Thought

We are citizens of God's Kingdom and how we treat each other matters more than our opinions.

Family Conversations

- How do we feel about someone in charge?
- How do we handle different opinions?
- What does God care about? How do we fight for it?

“This isn't the way it's supposed to be. God created us to live in unity with Him and each other in His Kingdom.”
