- Who is someone in your life that you can step in and serve right now?
- Describe a time when you or someone you know passionately responded to God in the midst of a difficult and discouraging season of life.

NEXT STEPS

- Make a list of things that are discouraging you right now.
 - How much time have you spent praying about these things?
 - Do these things distract you from seeing the needs of those around you?
 - How is God calling you to passionately respond to Him in the midst of discouragement?
