Scripture | Psalm 91

Finding Security Trusting in God's Presence

Security - the state of being free from danger, threat, fear, or anxiety.

Problem

- We trust the wrong things for security
- We trust the wrong people for security
- We misunderstand what God has promised about security
- We don't trust God for ultimate security

Ultimate security is only found by trusting in God's presence.

91:1-2 > Theme & Testimony (1st person)

I trust in God for security

We are invited into the security of God's presence (v 1)

- I find security in God because He is my dwelling
- I find security in God because of His names
- I find security in God because of His artistry

91:3-8 > Encouragement (2nd person "You")

You can trust God for security

- We can find security no matter what our experience is in life if we trust God and dwell in His presence

91:9-13 > Exhortation (2nd person "You")

You should trust God for security

- Once again, we are invited into the security of God's presence
- God protecting you by His angels

91:14-16 > Promise (God speaks)

God will deliver those who trust Him for security

- For thirteen verses, the Psalmists speak to you about finding your security in God's presence
- Now God Himself speaks about being your security in six promises
