James 3:1-12 | The Tongue of Faith (Part 1)

{ Our words carry far more weight than we recognize. }

James 3:1-12 discusses the power of the tongue more than any other passage. James is teaching of the maturity that comes from speaking well.

“Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. For we all stumble in many ways. And if anyone does not stumble in what he says, he is a perfect man, able also to bridle his whole body.” James 3:1-2

The _____ of taming the tongue (vv.1-2)

“If we put bits into the mouths of horses so that they obey us, we guide their whole bodies as well. Look at the ships also: though they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs.” James 3:3-4

The _____ of the tongue (vv. 3-4)

“So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great things. How great a forest is set ablaze by such a small fire!” James 3:5

The _____ of the tongue (vv. 5-6)
