Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego – Culture Changing Conviction

King Nebuchadnezzar struggled with whom his allegiance would be given, building a massive statue, showing that his pride was most important. Approximately 90 feet high by 9 feet wide, the statue was a symbol of Babylonian identity.

Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego replied to him, “King Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to defend ourselves before you in this matter. If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God we serve is able to deliver us from it, and He will deliver us from Your Majesty’s hand. But even if He does not, we want you to know, Your Majesty, that we will not serve your gods or worship the image of gold you have set up.” Daniel 3:16-18

What is a _____?

What are your convictions?

What convictions have you compromised?

We don't live by convictions; we live by preferences until they get too hard.

Commitment does best in community.

Three next steps moving forward:

1. Write down your three primary convictions (where you give authority).
2. Share with a friend how your conviction is being tested.
3. Repent of convictions not held to.

Even if my life is threatened,
I will not compromise my convictions.
